

Punjabi Education Center GSPJ

The Punjabi Education Center, GSPJ is located in the Annexe building within the GSPJ complex. Currently it has 200 students, 14 classes and 15 teachers. Phenji Satwant Kaur is the Head Teacher. We also have a part-time administrative Assistant in a fully functional PEC office.

Classes are held on Saturday from 2.30 - 6.30 pm except during school holidays. The Center, like all PECs around the country receives funding from the Punjabi Education Trust Malaysia (PETM). Text books are provided at a subsidised price. The PETM also trains the teachers, most of whom have graduated with the PETM diploma in Punjabi Language Teaching. PETM Inspectorate also sends out Inspectors to audit the center regularly to ensure that we are up to the mark in delivering Punjabi Language teaching and learning.

The PEC Management Board has embarked on setting Key Result Areas for the center. With this we hope to ensure that our Vision and Mission are achieved. The Current Board members are as follows:

Bhag Singh (ex-JPA)

Dalbir Singh (Chairman)
Satwant Kaur (Head Teacher, PEC GSPJ)
